

Rachel's Anthem

By Rachel Scott – Inspired by Rachel Joy Scott from the Columbine Tragedy.

Verse 1

I have this theory, of compassion,
In chain reaction.
Stone cast on water, the waves go farther,
Than your eye can tell.

Pre-Chorus / Half

And we can't, no we can't,
leave our hope under the bed.

Chorus

When we forgive and love,
And when we help and lead,
And we show mercy.
Someday these hands will reach
The hearts of those in need when we show mercy.

Verse 1

Pre-Chorus Half

Chorus

Verse2

Pre-Chorus All

Chorus

Bridge

Pre-Chorus All

Chorus

Tag

Verse 2

Don't lose faith, though you may doubt.

Hold on to what life's all about.

Look a little harder, look a little deeper

You may find out, we're all just people.

Pre-Chorus / All

And we can't, no we can't,

leave our hope under the bed.

And we can't, no we can't,

Let what we know go unsaid.

Chorus

When we forgive and love,

And when we help and lead,

And we show mercy.

Someday these hands will reach

The hearts of those in need when we show mercy.

Bridge

You and I were made, to love and be loved.

You and I were made, to love and be loved.

You and I were made, to love and be loved.

You and I were made, to love and be loved.

Pre-Chorus / All

And we can't, no we can't,
leave our hope under the bed.

And we can't, no we can't,
Let what we know go unsaid.

Chorus

When we forgive and love,
And when we help and lead,
And we show mercy.
Someday these hands will reach
The hearts of those in need when we show mercy.

Tag

I have this theory, of compassion, in chain reaction...

© 2009 Words & Music by Rachel Scott. JS Wesley Music all rights reserved.